

1. Application for a minor must be filed in the academic dean's office no later than the beginning of the second semester of the student's senior year. Departments and programs may require an application for a minor in advance of the second semester of the senior year, but not before the semester in which 60 credits are completed.
2. At least twelve of the eighteen credits required for a minor shall be at the 200-level or above. A minimum average of 2.00 must be earned in the eighteen or more credits required for the minor.
3. At least eight of the credits required for a minor must be earned at the University of Rhode Island.
4. A maximum of two courses required in a major program may be used to apply to both the major and minor fields of study. Foundational/ supporting courses, defined as courses that students take in preparation for the major, may also apply to the minor. At least one credit of the minor must come from a course that is neither a required nor a foundational/supporting course for the student's major. Courses in General Education may be used for the minor. Courses in the minor may not be taken under the pass-fail grading option.
5. Application of a minor should be filed with the student's dean prior to applying for graduation but after receiving the signature of the appropriate department chair.
6. Approval of a minor does not guarantee space in any course required for the minor.
